

Burning Permits Will Be Required After Tomorrow

Residents Are Warned To Do Spring Burning Immediately

Permits must be obtained between April 15 and November 30 to burn any material within the Tahoe National Forest.

In making the announcement, Fire Control Officer Nelson Stone these instructions apply to incinerators, door-yard premise needle and trash fires, the disposal of logging slash, sawmill waste and the use of explosives.

During this period it is also a requirement that power saws, tractors, graders, welders and other internal combustion engines used in the forest be equipped with an approved spark arrester. Permits for burning and information on spark arrester equipment can be obtained at the following places:

KINGS BEACH, NORTH TAHOE
Kings Beach fire house.
TAHOE CITY, WEST TAHOE
Henry's Garage in Tahoe City or Forest Service patrolman at William Kent campground on weekends.

SQUAW VALLEY
California Division of Forestry fire house.

TRUCKEE
Coffey's Garage, Bud's Fountain, Truckee Mercantile, Gateway Liquor Store.

All other areas, including Donner, Hobart Mills, Truckee River canyon and Florniston may obtain permits at the Truckee ranger station.

Residents are urged to do their spring cleanup burning early this year. Because of subnormal precipitation it is indicated that severe fire danger may make it necessary to restrict burning after June 1.

Squaw Facilities Presented Parks Official At Meet

Work of Cleanup To Be Started In Valley In Near Future

Without fanfare, the California Olympic Commission at a meeting Monday morning at Squaw Valley surrendered the facilities used during the 1960 Winter Olympic Games to the division of beaches and parks.

In accepting the facilities for the parks commission, Theodore Wilson, now in charge at Squaw Valley expressed the hope that the same success which marked the holding of the games would continue in the valley.

In reply, Chairman Harold A. Berlinger of the Olympic Commission, said he had faith in the successors to maintain a park worthy of the state and wished the parks officials continued success.

In other action the commission discussed the cleanup program which will include elimination of the huge piles of sawdust used for the parking area. Wayne Poulsen, owner of the land, asked that action be taken to restore the meadowland as soon as possible since he feared the sawdust would ruin the land for future grass development.

Other cleanup work and restoration of the ski courses will be undertaken in the near future. It was also agreed that a temporary fence be erected along a quarter mile drainage ditch, constructed for flood control, immediately. Fear was expressed that a child or even an adult might wander into the ditch and drown.

The facilities in the valley are now being operated by the division of beaches and parks, with the huge Blyth arena being maintained by Julius Schroeder of Stockton, who is operating on a commission basis.

Private owners are operating the skiing facilities through arrangements with the state.

STUDENTS TO OPEN
BOOK RETURN DRIVE

The Student Council of the Tahoe Truckee High School, in coordination with the library, is currently working out details prior to launching a district-wide book recovery drive. While the inventory of all library books is not more than half complete, the percentage of loss is running high.

Included in the drive will be textbooks for all grades. It is known that many textbooks are lost each year and it is believed that many of them can be recovered by the cooperative efforts of all students and parents. As an example, through the assistance of a good neighbor, the "lost" books of one student were recovered and returned to the library. In the total of thirteen there were seven texts and six library books with a current replacement value of $60.21. The librarian explains that a considerable savings to the district will be realized if these books can be recovered in a serviceable condition.

Governor Reports
Three Want Squaw

Governor Edmund G. Brown, who was in Squaw Valley Saturday
"to look around and see what we are going to do with all this," said the state is negotiating with three different groups to take over the entire operation of the valley facilities but he declined to identify them.

He did indicate, however, that interested groups are seeking a complete package which will include not only the operation of the state park but the Alex Cushing properties and the Folsom properties.

Looking ahead for Squaw Valley, the governor said, "If we do it right this will turn into one of the greatest resorts of the United States—and we are going to do it."
As to the acquisition of additional land which possibly may be necessary for this newly created public recreation area, the chief executive said the necessary condemnation bills have been approved by the legislature.

He went on to point out, however that while this legislation might be directed at obtaining the ski holdings of private owners in this area, no decision in the matter has been reached as yet.

He said it now is possible to "take it to a jury" if land cannot be obtained by outright purchase or negotiation.

"I am for the preservation of the esthetic values and wilderness areas in the back country," he said.
"Such a program of preservation of the mountains for the use of the public is part and parcel of the state program."

The governor said he is "getting the feel of this thing" by discussing Squaw Valley with Charles De Turk of the State Park Service and John Carr, state director of finance.

California grows 92 per cent of

NOEL HULBERT GETS TRIP FOR HEROISM

Noel Hulbert, who operates a disposal service in the Lake Tahoe region, is in line for an expense paid trip to Australia as an aftermath of a good deed he performed during the 1960 Winter Olympics, which might well have saved the life of an Australian hockey player.

Hulbert was in the vicinity of the ice arena with one of his trucks when Ivo Vesely of the Australian team suffered a deep neck laceration during a match.
The injured player was taken immediately to an ambulance, but the driver could not be found, and the key had been removed from the ignition.

Hulbert instructed the attendants to place Vesely on his truck then took him to the emergency hospital in Squaw Valley. Surgery was performed immediately. Following the emergency operation, doctors stated that a few more minutes without medical attention would have cost the man's life.

Hulbert has been notified that residents of the community in which Vesely lives will sponsor Hulbert's trip in appreciation of his alert action. He will be a guest in the Vesely home during his stay. The trip is being planned for next fall.

TRAILER OWNERS IN
PLACER ARE WARNED

AUBURN — Housetrailer owners will have to obtain permission from the building department and health department before obtaining a permit to locate a trailer in Placer County under a new joint departmental policy to control trailers moving into the county.

Planning Director Stewart Bryant said the restrictions are designed to "tighten up on the indiscriminate scattering of trailers throughout the county."

He said clearances for sewage disposal and building regulations will have to be obtained before an owner can move a trailer to the site.

The treasury department was created by an act of congress,
September 2, 1879.

By NINA SLADE
Lambert 5-7751
P. O. Tahoma, Lake Tahoe

We were delighted to have a first-hand breath of spring in the gift of Mrs. Wayne Jackson who brought us a huge and wondrous smelling bouquet of lilacs from Auburn.

Gardiner Mein and his son, Gardie, of San Francisco spent last weekend at Tahoe Park.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of San Francisco enjoyed the spring weather at Tahoe for the weekend.

The old Bert Scott place at Sunnyside which was bought by Dr. Cabot Brown recently has changed hands again. The property was purchased by the Dennis family of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fellows of Carnelian Bay returned from a grand vacation trip to Mexico, southern California and a jaunt to Acapulco. They visited San Lewis en route home. Lewis is attending San Jose State, majoring in physical education. He represented the school at a Yosemite meet last winter. A young man in a hurry, Lewis plans to attend summer school this year.

"Red" Anderson and Floyd Carrell celebrate birthdays this month. Red was host to the pre-meeting of the Lions Club this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee of Lincoln visited daughter Betty and Jack Starratt last week and enjoyed a look-see at the skaters in Blyth Arena.

Mrs. Matt Green returned from a world trip recently and is now living at the Hotel Senator in Sacramento. The bequest of $5,000 left to Tahoe City by the late Matt Green for the benefit of community recreation will soon be available and in the charge of N. R. Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wells Good, Jr., of Atherton and Home-wood have announced the engagement of their daughter, Susan Wheeler Good and James Castle Gaither. The wedding will take place April 30 at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo Park. The bride's sister, Stannie, will be maid of honor, and her other two sisters, Mrs. F. Oliver Greenlee of Moraga and Mrs. Thomas W. Wiley of Boston will precede her down the aisle. Many prenuptial parties are planned for the young couple.

Mrs. Fred Pedley of Truckee, president of the Sutter District California Federation of Women's Clubs, was special guest recently at a meeting of the Placerville Shakespeare Club.

Johel W. Lloyd of Oroville and Tahoma ended a 31-year career with Montgomery Ward when he retired last week. He had been manager of the Oroville store for 29 years. A native of Ontario, Canada, Lloyd began his Ward career January 1, 1929, as a management trainee in the Chico store. He also worked briefly in Stockton, Hayward and Monterey, before managing the new Oroville store. Under the company's rotation program, Lloyd served as manager in Reno and Santa Rosa for one year each. Store employees honored Lloyd at a banquet and he was feted in Prospectors Village where managers from several nearby communities were hosts.

Fifteen Tahoe City Golf Club members enjoyed golf at Roseville's Sierra View Golf Club last week and were entertained at cocktails by Mr. and Mrs. Hank Alrich of Walking-A ranch, Lincoln after the game. Carl Bechdolt, Jr., Bill Bechdolt, Billie Conners, John Finnegan, Marshall Rukhala, Steve Korich, Bill Hunter, Frank Gaiennie, Angie Besio, Angie Bonino, Tahoe City golf pro, Dave Karcher, Howard Martin, Lee Baker and Karl Kielhofer reported a wonderful game and a most enjoyable time with the Alrichs.

Mrs. V. J. Littlefield of Sacramento spent several weeks at her lakeshore Tahoma place and enjoyed the spring weather.

The Byers of Santa Cruz, Phillips of Sacramento, and Sommers of San Francisco opened their houses at Meeks Bay Vista last week.

The bishop's committee of St. Nicholas Church held their regular business meeting last week.

Clyde Nance and Irene Enstrom were married recently at St. Nicholas Church. The reception was held at Tahoe Inn where about 125 guests toasted the couple. Mrs. Allen Calhoun of Deer Park Lodge was matron of honor, and Kjell "Rusty" Rustad was best man. Among the guests at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Waters, of Powder Bowl, the Calhouns, and many Tahoe City friends. Clyde worked at Tahoe Inn at one time and was a ski instructor at Powder Bowl, but plans to take up surveyor's work now. The newlyweds have taken an apartment on the south shore.

The Lake Tahoe Sierra Emblem Club No. 347 met for a business meeting last Thursday at the Community Center. Thirty-one members attended and voted in the new years budget. Door prize was won by Connie Gill. At an executive board meeting President Florence Brown appointed Joann Rukhala, press correspondent, to fill the vacancy of club historian, due to the resignation of Claire McKone. President Brown, Vice President Jean Calhoun, Yvonne Bechdolt, Essie Loehner and Helen Summers plan to attend the state convention at the Lafayette Hotel, Long Beach, April 20 through April 24.

Although it is snowing at this writing, we are sure winter has gone for good. The state highway boys assured us of this when they took down the high orange snow poles on Highway 89 last week.

Sonja McCaskie of Auburn and Squaw Valley, Olympic contestant on the British team, romped off with first place in the recent Far West Ski Association Class A women's giant slalom championships.

Bob Lynch of Meeks Bay Resort has received word from the Byron Morgans, now living in Arroyo Grande, that they are enjoying their retirement, and sent some pictures showing their lovely home there surrounded by flowers—a testament to the perennial green thumb of Mrs. Morgan.

Mrs. Jack Malcolm of Del Paso Heights sends the sad news of the death of her husband, Jack on March 25, while watching TV. Firemen and doctors worked an hour before pronouncing him dead. The Malcolms lived at Tahoe in the late 20's and 30's before moving to the Sacramento area. Jack was a World War I veteran and both were great fishermen on the lake. Mrs. Malcolm has the sincere sympathy of all old friends at Tahoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hicks obligingly came to the aid of unregistered voters in the El Dorado County bottleneck and arranged to take registrations at their home on Highway 89.

The Federated Women's Club of Tahoe met at Squaw Valley Inn for a delightful luncheon. The members chose a nominating committee: Mrs. Gordon Brown, chairman, Mrs. D. Smith and Mrs. C. Cross assistants. Highlight of the

WHAT'S DOING

L. R. deGallery, your Telephone Manager in Tahoe City

"Nebraska has no seacoast. The native Hollander wears wooden shoes." Sound like strange conversation? Bell Telephone Laboratories engineers don't think so. It's part of a test to lessen noise on your phone. These sentences are taped against a background of noise, then played over phones to listeners who rate how clearly they sound. Our engineers learn a lot from this test—another way we work to bring you trouble-free phoning.

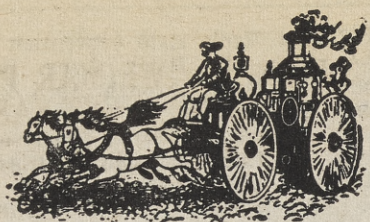

Each pair of insulated gloves worn by telephone men has a date stamped on it. On that day, he'll turn them in for a new pair so the old ones can get their "bath". But it's not to keep them clean. This "bath" has 10,000 volts of electricity shooting through it and if there's the slightest flaw in a glove, a hot blue arc warns: "Throw it out!" This attention to what seems a small detail is mighty important to telephone men who might work near power lines. And, because they know they're safe on the job, they can devote all their skill to bringing you good service.

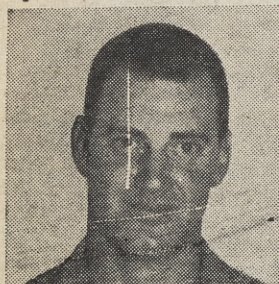

Flowers from the garden are one way to brighten up the house. Here's another way to bring spring in: "Pick a phone" from our garden of colors: red, pink, yellow, ivory, green, blue, beige, gray, or white. Extension phones are practical as well as pretty, like this kitchen wall phone. It hangs up handily, saves counter space . . . and saves you steps. Why not call a service representative at our business office, or talk to your telephone service man.

They'll be glad to help you pick a phone—or as many as you need—for your home. Pacific Telephone

AN INFORMED PUBLIC

A person accepting an elective position should do so because of an interest in Public Affairs and a desire to serve the people. He should perform that service conscientiously and adequately and in no way dependent upon the amount of recompense involved. Elected representatives have certain obligations to fulfill, apart from their earnest endeavors. These are a spirit of frankness and cooperation with those they serve and a full realization of the fact that it is public business which is being handled. A fully informed public is the most effective guarantee of a smooth running progressive public business.

Some public officials seemingly feel a certain reticence to acquaint the public with their intent and actions from fear of misunderstanding or of agitating the public.

It is safe to say that much more information develops because of misinformation that leaks out—as it always does—than from the dissemination of correct information. If elected as your Supervisor I can assure you that you will be kept fully informed of all actions affecting your interests at all times.

The traffic safety commission is issuing parking tickets to all students who have parked their cars on campus without a parking sticker. These stickers can be obtained from any member of the commission, after getting a "car check" at noon.

If a student receives two of these tickets, his privileges of parking on campus will be revoked. Traffic safety commission has the backing of the administration and the highway patrol, and their rules will be enforced.

Tickets will also be issued to any student who displays reckless driving while on campus. This includes excessive speed and failure to stop at the stop sign.

It will soon be time for the annual senior play. This year, the Class of 1960 will present "George Washington Slept Here." The students are being directed by Mrs. Weston Sauby and Jool Bol, English teachers, and practice is held three nights a week, after school. The play will open in the evening, on May 5.

Sign-up sheets for girls interested in trying out for cheerleaders and song-leaders are in Miss Ames' office. Any girls interested should sign up as soon as possible.

The student council is planning to have a "car wash" to help raise the funds in their diminished treasury. It is scheduled for May 15 from noon until 5 p. m. The exact locations in the towns of Kings Beach, Tahoe City and Truckee have not been announced.

The library is tightening up on students whose names appear frequently on the overdue book list. After the first week the student is given five demerits for every week the book is not returned. Students are urged to check this list, and to return all overdue books.

DETOUR OPENS NEAR MONTE VISTA WHEN ROAD WORK STARTS

A major detour from U. S. Highway 40, beginning at the Monte Vista Inn, about 10.5 miles north-east of Colfax, went into effect Monday morning, March 28.

The 2.6-mile detour will extend from Monte Vista, through Dutch Flat and Alta, to the Alta road junction with U. S. 40 where traffic will resume use of the highway.

State division of highways officials in making the announcement at the Marysville district office, said that the rerouting will remain in effect indefinitely during construction of the $5,000,000 five-mile freeway section between Monte Vista and Baxter, begun last summer.

Favorable weather has permitted the contractor, Madonna Construction Company of San Luis Obispo, to shift freeway building operations into high gear.

Detouring traffic permits uninterrupted heavy excavation and construction without hazard to motorists, as well as providing a two-lane highway in order to avoid traffic delays on the transcontinental route.

Freeway completion is currently estimated for next year, probably during the summer.

In anticipation of the present freeway construction, the detour was constructed two years ago and follows a county road which was the state highway prior to 1933.

The temporary route is winding with several sharp curves. Motorists are urged to exercise careful driving. It is posted for advisory speeds.

APPLICATION MADE BY WATER COMPANY

The California Public Utilities Commission has set the public hearing in the matter of application of Sierra-Nevada Water Company for a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the construction, operation and maintenance of a water system and plant on the northwest shore of Lake Tahoe, in Placer County and for a permit to issue stock.

Examiner William W. Dunlop will preside at the hearing which will be held for Thursday, April 21, at 10 a. m., in the Tahoe Community Center, Tahoe City.

At this time and place, or at subsequent hearings, all interested parties may appear and be heard.

CONTRACTORS CLEAR IN POLLUTION ACTION

Four U. S. 40 contractors were found innocent of stream pollution by a Colfax-Alta-Dutch Flat Judicial District Court Friday night following three days of testimony and one hour twenty minutes of deliberation.

Frank C. Wood, Andrew F. Welsner, Gordon Hanna and James Kirst, were charged by the department of natural resources with allowing debris from their gravel operations to enter the South Yuba River and destroy fish life. The four were contractors for four-laning U. S. 40 near Kingsvale, Placer County.

Randall, William Stark, Richard Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Weinand.

Plans are underway to get the cadet training started at the next meeting on Monday at Veterans' Memorial Building. The time has been changed to 7:30 to 9 p. m. and it is important that the cadets who have signed up start the training so as not to fall behind the class.

Loehr Has Record For Attendance

Probably the most important duty of a supervisor is to attend meetings of the board, and your incumbent for the past 15 years has established a record of which he is justly proud.

The minutes of the meetings will reveal that H. G. Loehr has attended more than 92 per cent of all meetings. Never has he missed when important issues concerning his district were on the agenda and regardless of weather—which was often most inclement—he made the long trip to represent his constituents.

Meetings are always important, but the few he missed were concerned mostly with the board sitting as a board of equalization or on other less important matters. On budget matters, whether they were of a general nature or concerned directly with his district, Loehr was on hand to wage a good fight for the fifth district's share.

He can truly be proud of his attendance record and while he does not base his current campaign on this phase alone, he can truthfully say he has been on the job and has waged a good fight for the rights of the fifth district.

CAMERON STRIKES AT REAPPORTION PLAN

State Senator Ronald G. Cameron of the 7th Senatorial District (Nevada, Placer and Sierra Counties) this week smashed at the so-called Bonelli plan for reapportionment of the state senate.

The senator said, "the counties of Nevada, Placer and Sierra, which I represent, are in grave danger under the provisions of the so-called Bonelli plan for senatorial reapportionment which will appear on the November ballot. The counties of the 10th District, all of them vitally important in the economy of the state as a whole, would be completely obliterated as a senatorial district."

"Under the new scheme of things, where eight Northern California senatorial districts would be reapportioned to provide eight new districts for Southern California with six of them going to Los Angeles County alone, Nevada, Placer and Sierra would be forced to share a senator with El Dorado, Alpine, Amador and Calaveras. Of these, Amador and El Dorado would be drawn from the present 9th District, and Calaveras and Alpine from the present 26th and 28th Districts, respectively."

SPARKS WINS 19 - 0 IN WOLVERINE GAME

By KRIS FELTE

The Sparks Railroaders pounded out 12 hits, and took advantage of six Tahoe Truckee errors, to score nine runs on two hits in the final inning of play to win a Northern Nevada Conference game 19-0, at Sparks Friday afternoon. The game was called at the end of six innings on account of darkness. The Wolverines struck lightning in the first inning on Woody Ribal's two-run homer. The Railroaders came back in the same inning to score five runs and take over the lead.

The boys from Sparks scored five more runs before Truckee could manage another tally. In the top of the fourth, the Wolverines scored seven runs on one hit, to make the score 10-9 for Sparks.

The fifth was the same story, but for the opposite team, as the Railroaders scored nine runs on two hits, which were a triple by Frank Hauder and a single by George Parigini.

In the Wolverines' top of the sixth, they could not manage any runs before the game was called. Although Sam Medford went the first four innings for the Wolverines, he was the losing pitcher.

MUCH MATERIAL IS USED IN BUILDING OF BOWLING ALLEY

How many thumb bruises are likely to result from the pounding of 8,000 nails?

That's a statistic no one has ever compiled and it would pain the amateur carpenter even to contemplate the average. As for the 8,000 nails, approximately that many are required for the construction of one bowling lane bed.

This piece of incidental intelligence has cropped up because the work of installing lanes is underway at the Kings Beach Bowl, under construction at Kings Beach.

Representatives of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co. are now on the scene supervising installation of the 16 lane beds.

Kings Beach Bowl will feature a complete line of Brunswick equipment including automatic pinsetters and is scheduled for opening about May 9.

Meanwhile, the hammering continues with more than 128,000 nails to be driven into the select quality, precision cut maple and pine lumber destined to become mirror smooth highways for bowling balls. That's not counting the additional nails required to construct the 2 x 4 and 2 x 10 framework to support the lane beds.

Other statistics involved are equally staggering. When completed, each bed will weigh over 3,000 pounds and will be composed of 1,594 feet of maple and 1,582 feet of pine.

Why are two types of wood used? To assure long life for the beds and provide the best scoring conditions for the bowler, Mr. Willis Mizner explains.

"Maple is used at both ends of the bed because a hard wood is required to withstand the impact of the ball and falling pins," Mr. Mizner points out. "The middle half of each bed is constructed of pine because its open grain is best for holding the spinning ball to its straight or hook path depending on the bowlers delivery."

Both types of lumber arrive pre-cut in tongue and groove form from Brunswick factories in Muskegon, Michigan and Marion, Virginia and each 1 1/2 by 2 1/2 inch length is fitted with the open grain edge up, the superior strength surface.

The business of piecing together and installing Brunswick lanes is one of high precision since the American Bowling Congress insists on close-tolerance specifications if the lanes are to qualify for ABC sanction.

ABC regulations specify the overall lane bed length from foul line to pit edge at 62 feet, 10 and 3/16 inches. Bed width must be at least 41 but not more than 42 inches.

Before the bed can be approved for ABC sanctioned league or tournament play, its surface must be free of any depression, groove, high spot or tilt in excess of 40/1000ths of an inch.

In other words, an aspiring lane bed must be super smooth and strictly on the level to earn its ABC's.

The United States imports about 42 per cent of Brazil's iron ore exports.

WOLVERINES MUFF LEAD, LOSE 13 TO 9

By KRIS FELTE

The Tahoe Truckee Wolverines muffed a 6 to 1 lead to be beaten by the Manogue Miners, on the Truckee diamond, Saturday afternoon, to the tune of 13-9.

Junior Stanley Gould, Wolverine pitcher, tossed a shut-out until the sixth inning, then gave up a single run.

In the final inning disaster struck Tahoe Truckee as they seemed unable to do anything right, and the Miners could do no wrong.

Manogue exploded for 5 runs in the final inning and then scored seven more while their ace pitcher,

Link Curtis, allowed the Wolverines only three.

Coach Cal Farley pointed out that the errors of the supporting players kept this from being a TnT win, and the Wolverines are hoping to make a better showing when next they meet the Miners, in Reno, in May.

They are placing their hopes on building pitchers like Stan Gould to follow in the footsteps of former greats, such as Craig Robinson who is now attending Fresno State College.
